

1) Computer programming

July 3rd to 7th (full 5-day week)

July 31st to August 4th

This is a camp where students can come and get a taste of various topics explored in computer Science and learn to speak with computers using a programming language! Everything from web design to to game development. A great place to start!

2) Game Development

July 10th to 14th

August 7th to 11th (full 5-day week)

This camp will allow young people to create their own game and discover how to create sprites, move objects and create stories.

3) Website creation

July 17th to 21st

August 14th to 18th

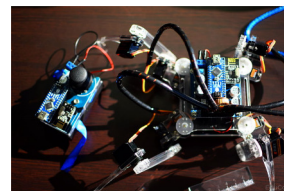

This camp will allow young people to discover or deepen their knowledge in building websites using HTML5 and CSS3 and the popular Bootstrap Framework!

4) Robotics (Arduino)

July 24th to 28th

August 21st to 25th

This camp will allow young people to discover how electronic devices work by building their own device using the Arduino microcontroller. They will take home their project!

For questions and pricing visit our website at www.educode.ca or call us at (506) 801-1132

Note: Camp places are limited to 25 young people per session