March means March Break - March Break means March Madness Reading Challenge!

Home & School is issuing a school wide Reading Challenge! Each student will be sent home this week with a reading log to either track the minutes read or number of pages read each day! Our goal for the school is to read 12,000 minutes by March 14th! When the students return from March break we will collect the forms to see how close we are and have a few extra couple days in class to reach or exceed our goal! Let's all work together to read-read-read and earn an extra special surprise!

We wish everyone a happy and safe March Break!

Our next H&S meeting will be held Monday, March 19th and we will be wrapping up the Reading Challenge and prepping for our Annual April Pancake breakfast.

MARCH IS NUTRITION MONTH!

Watch for "A Practical and User-Friendly Guide" with some ideas to help you plan and prepare breakfasts, lunches and snacks coming home with your child.

Literacy Week Story Chain

This story was written as it passed from class to class:

One day all the kids at Apohaqui Elementary School were playing outside at recess. All of a sudden, a spaceship landed on Mrs. Bettle's car! Crunch!

A raptor came out of the spaceship and went into the school. Students and staff all ran and hid! The raptor shredded everything with his sharp teeth. How can we get the raptor out of our school?

We were still in lockdown but we had to think of a plan quickly. Mrs. Johnson had her phone. Thank goodness!! Jadynd told her to call the army.

The army arrived at AES, marched through the front door and saw the terrifying raptor! Sergeant John sprinted into Mrs. Bettle's office. He blurted out "I thought you were kidding, but you're not! I have to save y'all!" Sergeant John darted out of her office and saw his army scrambling to leave the school. He screamed, "What are you doing?" Before Mrs. Bettle also leaves she says "It's all up to you now Sergeant John. Adagios Amigos!" Sergeant John cried "I want my mommy!"

Sergeant John's mom barged into the school. She started yelling, "stop being a big baby and get to work!" The raptor heard Sergeant John's mother's screeching and crashed through the brick wall. He rolled into the spaceship and vowed never to return to Earth again.

Thank you to the AES Home & School for all the wonderful treats & gifts provided to us during Staff Appreciation Week!
