Peter McGill Scholarship

For the Simonds High School, Saint John High School, and St. Malachy's Memorial High School.

In 1976, Peter McGill, began his Community college career as an instructor in the Business Technology program at NBCC- Saint John campus. He taught and learned as he progressed in the teaching profession, later taking on the responsibilities of Dean of studies for the college's 30 programs. His time as Principal at the college included a close working relationship with business and industry and Community leaders, and performing the responsibilities required of this office. Following his time at NBCC, Peter worked for several years at the University of New Brunswick - Saint John Campus as Director of Saint John College.

Throughout his career, Peter was able to observe and appreciate the efforts, struggles and successes of thousands of students who were then able to go on to good and satisfying careers, becoming valuable and productive members of their communities. He was keenly aware of the financial struggles which many students faced then and continues to face to this day. This led Peter to becoming one of the key proponents of the development of The NBCC Foundation Inc. – La Fondation du CCNB Inc. Endowment, and one of its most valuable fundraisers during its very first financial campaign. The resulting bursaries presented annually to high school graduates honours the special efforts of key fund raisers like Peter McGill, who committed time and resources for the betterment of future students at NBCC.

Maurice Roy Scholarship

For Bathurst High School.

A college education, too often underestimated, is today without question one of the pillars of social and economic development in our society. On many occasions, first as an engineer and later as an educator, I have had the privilege of observing and appreciating the contributions of this level of education at the provincial, national, and even international levels.

This scholarship is both a recognition of the success of its recipients and a celebration of the institution which is the New Brunswick Community College, the acknowledged leader in trade and technical training in our province. I am proud to have contributed to the development of this scholarship...I wish all graduates the very best of success!

Forever, a dedicated Ambassador of the New Brunswick Community College,

Maurice Roy
