

Character Development in Robin Hood

Robin Hood	Prince John
Little John	Sir Hiss
Maid Marian	Sheriff of Nottingham
Friar Tuck	Nutsy

Remember your notes on character development. Watch the movie closely, and write down anything that helps us understand what type of individual each of the above characters is supposed to be. For example, you might notice that Robin Hood has a calm, soothing sort of voice—which makes him sound kind and trustworthy. Sir Hiss' voice, on the other hand, makes him seem sneaky and unkind.
