

Hints for Reading a High School Report Card

RP 1 Average: The average of marks earned in Reporting Period 1.

Current: Number of credits the student has earned so far during this school year. Credits are not earned for Grade 9 and 10 courses.

Previous: Number of credits the student has earned prior to this school year.

PLP: Personalized Learning Plan Indicator.

Period: When the course is taken during the day.

Comments: Teacher comments are found in this section. Translated comments are available.

Final Average: Average of all final marks.

Credit: The number of credits earned towards graduation requirements in grade 11 & 12 courses only. 1 Credit is earned for a semestered course and 2 Credits are earned for a full year course.

Pd Abs: Total number of periods missed of that particular course.

Final: Final mark earned in the course. In this report card, the final marks are for courses completed by January (Reporting Period 2). This is NOT the average of the marks in the other reporting periods. (Also called F1).

RP4: Reporting Period 4 is blank in this report card as this is a report card for April (Reporting Period 3).
Marks for Reporting Period 4 will be communicated on the final report card in June. (RP4 is also called Q4)

RP3: Marks earned between January and April. (Also called Q3)

RP2: Marks earned between November and January. (Also called Q2)

RP1: Marks earned between September and November. (Also called Q1)
