New Brunswick Provincial K-8 Report Card

In ASD-S, teachers provide formal feedback about student learning three times per year (November, March, and June). For the 2017-18 school year, ASD-S is transitioning to the new provincial K- 8 report card and using Standards Based Grading. This follows what the other school districts have implemented over the past four years.

For the report cards, teachers will identify the level of achievement on a 4-point scale that best describes your child's current progress.

Frequently Asked Questions

If a box on the report card is blank or says N/A, what does that mean?

What will teachers use to decide my child's performance level?

Teachers will use a collection of evidence about a student's learning based on the grade level expectations. This collection will include products completed by the students, observations made by the teacher, and conversations with your child.

How is the final achievement level calculated?

Each term stands alone. Terms will not be averaged on the final June report card. Student achievement level will reflect that most recent success.

Will there be teacher comments on the new report card?

Teachers will summarize your child's learning each term by making specific comments on the report card. These comments will include strengths, needs, and/or next steps.

Please contact the teacher if you have specific questions about the academic progress of your child.

Response Form

Does the response form for parents and students have to be filled out?

Parent expectations and students setting their own learning goals are two factors research says improve academic achievement; therefore, it is recommended students and parents reflect together and fill out this form. The only requirement is for parents/guardians to sign and return the form so the teacher knows it was received. All forms will be read and kept on file.
