

Dear Mom and Dad,

Hey, are you looking for a place to spend time with your family? Well, how about Florida?

First we could swim everyday at the beach in the light turquoise water. Next we could maybe even go swimming with the dolphins!

After all that stuff we could just float in the pool. Now I know that you guys want to relax too, so we also could tan and enjoy the sun! (Don't forget your sun-screen!) If you guys don't feel like it then we could just chill at the beach! Do you know what Florida is great for? Exploring!

I heard that Sea World and Animal Kingdom is spectacular! There is even a theme park called Appocat it has scaring rides and much more.

Florida is a place to have fun and spend time with your family so I think it would be an awesome terrific, marvelous vacation.

Yours truly
