

Good morning Huskies! These are your announcements for Wednesday, June 6. We are on a regular schedule.

The Husky Awards will take place on June 7th at 6pm in the HHS Theatre. All students who have taken part in the sports, drama and other extra curricular activities are encouraged to attend. Parents are also welcome. (6/7)

St. Paul's Church will be having a FREE lunch today. Grilled cheese and tomato soup or chicken noodle soup. (6/6)

Attention Grads, from today at lunch until Thursday at lunch, we will be selling prom dinner tickets for non-grad dates! They cost $30 and there are a limited number, so get yours soon. Also all graduates need to pick their prom dinner tickets (this cost is covered by your grad fee). You will not get into the prom without that ticket, please put it in a safe spot. (6/7)

Attention all Huskies!! This Friday is our last spirit day! Grab all your black and white clothing and get in the husky spirit! There will also be a FREE BBQ at lunch! See you there! (6/8)

Drama – all students in grade 9-11 who plan on being involved in Drama next year are asked to attend a meeting today at 12:30 in the Learning Commons.

Reminder to the Tech Crew that there is a meeting today at 12:30 in the Theatre. All members must attend.

There is a Greenhouse work day today after school today.

There will be a brief, mandatory house committee meeting at break today. All siblings participating in the graduation house committee please see Ms Joyce in room 216 at break today.

Would grade 12 AP students please check the potential AP Scholar Candidate list that is posted in the office window to ensure that nobody got missed from the list.

Are you looking for a summer job? The HHS Scholarship and Bursary Foundation is looking for a student to do data entry and website maintenance. Details can be found on the guidance bulletin board. The deadline to apply is Friday, June 8th. (6/8)

All those receiving a Husky Achievement Crest at Thursday nights Awards Night can check the list on the gym and theatre doors for their name. (6/7)

Attention Grads! The 2018 Grad song has been voted on. This years winner is “Good Old Days” by Macklemore and Ke$ha.

Did you know women in Ethiopia are unable to have an education because they have to walk three miles to get water? Donate to the wishing well project with your third period class, the most money donated by a class wins a pizza party! We’ll collect it during working period tomorrow! Thursday is the final day to donate!
