

Good morning Huskies! These are your morning announcements for Monday, January 14, 2019, and today is a regular schedule.

Any grads who are interested in ordering grad clothing are asked to bring their money to Mrs. Richard by Friday, Jan 18. There will be no other orders this year. (1/18)

This is a message for all students who currently have books on loan from the Learning Commons. You will not be issued a report card at the beginning of semester two if your name is on the overdue book list. please make every effort to return or renew overdue books asap! (1/15)

Mrs. Fry will be reviewing grade 10 ionic compounds today at 12:45 to 1:15 in room 120,

Congratulations to the girls basketball team for hosting a great tournament this weekend-end. The players of the game were Kyleigh MacDonald, Sylvia Price and Lydia Pearson. The girls face Harvey High tonight in league play at 5:30. Please see Miss Myers if you are interested in working the clock.

There will be yoga in the gym starting at 12:45. Open to all! Also, coloring is in the cafeteria. Stay relaxed and enjoy your zen week.

Spring Musical – Mr. MacMillan & Mrs. Dowling would like to thank everyone who came out to audition. The cast list will be posted later today.

There will be a meeting for all band students tomorrow in the Music Room at break!