

Good morning, Huskies! It is Monday, March 25th and we are on a regular schedule.

This Wednesday-just 2 more sleeps-until you can purchase delectable delights and generous gifts for the Easter long weekend. The Entrepreneurship classes' first marketplace is this coming Wednesday, March 27th. Student vendors will be set up in the cafeteria during working period and first half of lunch. Cash and e-transfer are accepted. From arts and crafts to hair products, from specialty drinks to food and snacks, you're bound to find something you like. See you at the market.

St. Paul's Church will also be offering their grilled cheese lunch again this Wednesday during lunch hour. All are welcome!

Gulf Operators from the Irving Construction & Equipment Division will have a booth in the lobby on Tuesday, March 26th at lunch. Any students looking for summer employment or interested in future career opportunities should connect with them on Tuesday at lunch.

Anyone interested in being part of Drama Fest this year, either on stage or backstage please meet in Mr. Dunstan's room, room 213, at the start of lunch for a quick meeting.
