New Business

Fluoride

*All is going well

*Fluoride trays are marked "fluoride" for that use only, there are extra trays if they are needed for other use.

*Extra Kleenex has been provided to each classroom

Library

* All is going well

*Coordinators are meeting this week to figure out a volunteer night to input books into the computer system.

*Book fair is scheduled for the next parent teacher.

*Regeena Christie will look into the credit fom the previous bookfair in November.

*Still in need of volunteers, a new email will be sent out.

Playground

*The big reveal! Students excited.

*It will be a spring install due to the ground freezing.

School Update

*Staff of CSM very appreciative of the Home and School for putting on a lovely Breakfast and for including everyone. And also for donating money to the teachers for the Elve's workshop for craft supplies. Over $500 was raised for the Food Bank.

*We have a parent who is willing to help build some key pieces for our x-mas float in next years parade. He would need a heads up. Carey Childs has his contact information.

*Skating sessions will begin next month, mis February, and will run until March. Each class will go three times weather pending. A letter will be sent out to the parent population soon.

*Activities in the evening at CSM. Still looking into a movie license and the cost. looking to do a family fun night with games like: minute to win it, a sock hop, photo booth, concessions.

*Reminder to go out about the Papa Johns pizza night fundraiser. CODE-CSMES

Treasurer's Report

* There is currently just a little over $2500 in the bank account.

*Received a cheque from the Kiwanis Calendars fundraiser for $970

* The Christmas baskets brought in $1332. Next year we will sell the tickets a week in advance.

Fundraising

* Looking to have Carolyn's group come up with an idea to fundraise for a popcorn machine.

*Next year, we will sell tickets for front row seating at the Christmas Concert

*Art Showcase-possibly start an art group at school and have them each make a piece to sell at our art showcase. Will see if Mrs Lamontagne is interested in helping. Would have to be teacher-lead.

*Vendor Fair is a go! April 29th, from 10 am to 2 pm. Jaime Bannister will head this project with the help of many of us. Tables will be $40 for each vendor. First come first serve, Non-refundable. We will have a maximum of 50 tables. Each vendor will donate an item for our basket draw. We will hold a bake sale. Possibly move the bake sale to the gym this year. Lunch will be provided for the vendors. We will set up Friday evening, April 28th,2017.

*Clothing orders- Going to check with "Embroider-it!" to see if we can settle on a design. The end of February will be our next clothing order. We will have these options: Long sleeve, short sleeve, hoodie, shorts, sweatpants and water bottles.

*DQ Ice Cream Cake Fundraiser-Natacha Gillis is willing to coordinate this great fundraiser again this year. Sometime in May.

Next meeting is scheduled for February 13th,2017.
