

SCHOLARSHIPS CHOSEN BY SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

Barn Workshop: Student showing most promising tradesman - grade 11 or 12	$100
Cary Tire: School & Community involvement / Academic cooperation	$100
Dennis Ingersoll Memorial: School & Community involvement / Academic / Post Secondary	$100
Rotary Youth Merit Award: School & Community involvement. One prize at local level. School recommendation sent to Provincial level	$100
Ell's Funeral Home: Preferences to Sciences / Financial need / Academic Standing	$200
Birk's Medal for Leadership Outstanding Leadership qualities throughout their high school career	Medal
FNBFA Medal Student consistently involved in student government throughout high school years	Medal
Graeme Cunningham Memorial Award Leadership, volunteer activities, community involvement, perseverance in the face of adversity, academic effort, positive attitude, care for the environment	Plaque/$100
Doug Flagg Memorial Prize The graduate who best exemplifies Doug's qualities: friendliness, pride in work, joy in living and love of fellow man	Plaque/$100
Governor-General's Bronze Medal Highest marks in Grade 12 (not necessarily the Valedictorian)	Medal & Certificate
Josten's Medal for Cooperation Strong cooperation; most helpful in graduating class	Medal
Reader's Digest Prize for Valedictorian Class valedictorian	Certificate & 1 yr. subscription to Reader's Digest
Rotary Youth Merit Award Recognition of community activities, academic efforts, extracurricular participation	Certificate & $100
Athletic Awards Legion's Male Athlete of the Year, Legion Ladies Auxiliary Female athlete of the Year and the Ritchie Linton Memorial Most Improved athlete (must be a member of the Boys basketball team) to be chosen by the coaches	Trophies
Save Easy Valedictory Prize Class Valedictorian	$300
Highest in Class Highest mark in Grade 12 subject classes (may be awarded to a Grade 11 student)	Varies from $50 - $200