Principal's Report (Principal, Barbara Long):

- Vaping is still an issue; however, it has decreased since the HALO detectors were installed.
- New agendas will be ordered for the graduates as there are not enough for all students. Some agendas were distributed at an Award's banquet without Mrs. Long's approval.
- School clothing will be ordered in the new year.
- Christmas Market for the Grad Class went well. The class fundraised about $1000.
- Grad class will host one larger fundraiser this year.
- Basketball teams are running; Senior boys did not have enough for a team; referee fees are high so the Athletic Directors are looking into that.
- Various student surveys begin next week.... Wellness Surveys.
- Friday's PL plan will focus on the school plan; Goals: School Belonging; offering groups and activities to so that students become more involved. School staff are hosting various activities based on their skills/interests. Nighthawk Recognition slips being created to encourage positive behaviour.
