

Capital Letters#1 - Review

Directions: Identify all the words that should be capitalized by circling the first letter.
(Note: These examples correspond to the categories on your study guide.)

1. The buffalo bills are members of the national football league.
2. The singer won a people's choice award in los angeles friday night.
3. mrs. miller's class is studying about the stone age during the month of september.
4. let's shop at west ridge mall and then have dinner at olive garden.
5. In america, thanksgiving is celebrated on a thursday in november.
6. During world war II, european soldiers fought to save the jewish people.
7. our payment to united telephone company is due the first monday in november.
8. The drama club at central high school will perform a skit at the greek festival.
9. the nile river flows through egypt on the continent of africa.
10. My sister is studying music at northwestern university in boston, massachusetts.
11. Did you know that saturn and jupiter are much larger than venus and earth?
12. "The russian language is harder to learn than german," claimed mr. murphy.
13. We visited kennedy space center and walt disney world on our trip to florida.
14. The civil war and revolutionary war were both fought in north america.
15. After lunch at pizza hut, let's see a movie at eastside theater on saturday.
16. we viewed niagara falls from both the canadian and american sides.
17. "Is george washington's face carved on mt. rushmore?" asked john.
18. The u.s.s. constitution sailed bringing u. s. navy soldiers home from service.
19. After easter, I'm flying to chicago on delta airlines.
20. The world series is a popular october sporting event.