Create-Your-Own Reading Guide

As we discuss our novel, you'll create your own reading guide to display your learning. Complete three tasks for each section. Support your work with quotes from the text (including page numbers). Each section should be completed at the beginning of the next class period.

Remember	Understand	Create	Analyze
#1 -- List and describe new characters introduced in this section.	#4 -- Summarize this section in a well-developed paragraph.	#7 -- Illustrate a scene from this section in the style of a comic strip/graphic novel.	#10 -- Analyze one symbol in this section and its significance to the novel.
#2 -- Define five vocabulary words from this section in your own words.	#5 -- Describe two types of conflicts in this section and how they are resolved.	#8 -- Compose a poem based on this section of the novel.	#11 -- Compare the reactions and emotions of two characters in this section.
#3 -- Identify the settings in this section.	#6 -- Explain how one character's actions in this section impact the plot.	#9 -- Write a personal response to two meaningful quotes from this section.	#12 -- Ask (and answer) two critical questions about this section.

For each section, choose one task from three different columns. By the end of the novel, you need to have completed each activity at least once (with some repeats). Write which items you've completed each day in the chart below:

Section	Due date
