Andrew Culberson
Guidance Counselor
Fredericton High School

Andrew Culberson is a respected, dedicated, Fredericton High School counsellor who goes beyond the call of duty to help students feel welcome, valued, and safe in the school community. Andrew is known for his student advocacy, innovative thinking, patience, and passion for supporting projects that promote student voice. As a strong and passionate student advocate, he is always striving for fair, supportive and effective solutions. His enthusiasm and innovative thinking motivates youth and colleagues to embrace initiatives that contribute to the creation of a positive school community.

In addition to his role as school counsellor, Andrew finds time to mentor new counsellors as a part-time instructor at UNB and is active in supporting many community initiatives. Thank you Andrew for positively enriching and enlivening the learning experience of countless youth and educators within Anglophone West School District.
