

Rock your socks for World Down Syndrome Day!

March 21st is internationally recognized as World Down Syndrome Day.

Please help us celebrate at school on Thursday, March 19th.

Students are invited to wear bright, funky, or mismatched socks to raise awareness and create conversation about Down Syndrome. We will have a school wide assembly focusing on awareness, acceptance and celebrating Down Syndrome in the classroom and the community!

