

PIF Learning Opportunities

Week of June 8th

Bonjour tout le monde!

As we wrap up this year, I will leave you with some ways you can practice French over the next week and as you move on to high school. Some are new for this week:

Text your friend in French Sometimes I send an unsuspecting friend a text in French, just for fun. Here are some suggestions to get you started: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Comment ça va? (How's it going?)- Quoi de neuf? (what's up?)- Il fait beau aujourd'hui. (It's nice out today)	French Lesson With A Friend Ask somebody you know speaks from very well to teach you a new word or phrase. Practice saying it in a few sentences.
Download An App Duolingo is a good example of the many fun and easy apps that are out there to practice a new language and continue to learn new words and phrases. Download the app and start a lesson in whatever theme you like.	Listen to French Radio/Podcast In Fredericton, you can always get ICI Radio Canada at 102.3 to listen to the news in French. There are also many great podcasts out there. A couple of my favourites are "Learn French by Podcast" and "Duolingo French Podcast."
Create a Pocket Dictionary Start with the title « dictionnaire de poche » Fill it with French phrases that you think are useful and don't want to forget! You can also do this digitally using whatever app you like (Google Docs, Word, Notes, etc.)	Teach Somebody Do you know somebody that really does not speak any French? This could be a family member you live with, a younger sibling or maybe a grandparent. Try to teach them a couple of simple words and phrases. Here are a couple great sentences to start with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Bonjour!- Je m'appelle _____.- Comment ça va?

J'ai vraiment aimé vous enseigner cette année. Passez un bon été!

Au revoir!
