Tips

- ▶ Essay:
- ▶ General essay:
  - about yourself, your character, resilience, service to others, etc.
  - outline why you deserve a scholarship
  - include leadership roles/activities
  - highlight what you've learned
  - how your experiences have helped shape you
- ▶ Ask an English teacher or Guidance Counsellor for support at any point in the essay-writing process
- ▶ can generally use the same essay, tweaking parts to make it fit that specific scholarship
- ▶ *Sometimes, essays are answering question(s) in an essay format (be sure to follow the essay guidelines carefully for each scholarship)
- ▶ Once essay is written have it proofread and edited by: Teacher/Parent/Guidance

Tips continued...

- ▶ Reference Letter(s):
- ▶ Give the person 2+ weeks notice
  - Provide the name of scholarship
  - Let them know the due date of the scholarship (or when you plan to submit your application)
- ▶ People to ask: coaches, teachers, work managers/supervisors
- ▶ Provide a “Brag Sheet”, outlining all volunteer, sports, extra-curricular, leadership involvement (pick up a helpful sheet at Guidance 😊)
  - ▶ names of organizations, your role, dates
