NEWSLETTER NO. 7

MARCH 2017

Winter is winding down and the countdown is on for Spring. The snow has certainly piled up over the past few weeks and the warmer temperatures will be welcomed by all.

March Break starts on Friday; the staff of Liverpool wishes all their families a wonderful week of rest. For those travelling to a warmer climate we wish you a safe and enjoyable trip.

Welcome to Liverpool

Liverpool Street School welcomes three new STU candidates for eight weeks following March Break. Brittany Everett will be working with Miss Holland, Ryan Barrie will be working with M. Gauvin and Maggie Estabrooks will be working with Mrs. Penney.

We also welcome a new UNB candidate, her name is Alexandra Cormier. She will be working with Madame Allison. Both Alexandra and Erika Griffin will be completing their seven week placement after March Break as well. We look forward to working with these young teacher candidates over the next couple of months.

TNB

Theatre New Brunswick will be at the school on Wednesday, March 1st to present The Damsel in Distress Who Saved Herself. Thanks goes to the Liverpool Home & School for supporting this worthwhile presentation.

Daylight Savings

Just a reminder to set your clocks ahead on Sunday, March 12th.

Do you know which province in Canada does not 'fall' back or 'spring' ahead?

Razzmatazz Performance

On Thursday, March 30th the students at Liverpool will participate in a bilingual Razzmatazz presentation. This is an interactive musical show. Liverpool has over 350 students so there will be two presentations; one for the students in grade 2 and 3 and another for students in grades 4 and 5.

The Little Mermaid

Students in grades 4 and 5 will be travelling to George Street Middle School on Friday, March 31st for a drama presentation of The Little Mermaid. Please be watching your child's bag after March Break for a permission slip explaining the details of this field trip.

Thank You

The staff of Liverpool would like to thank all the families who sent in snacks for Staff Appreciation Week. Your generosity is much appreciated!

Popcorn Sale

We will be having a popcorn sale on Thursday, March 23rd. If your son/daughter would like to buy a bag of popcorn on that day please send $1 on Wednesday, March 22nd.
