FRENCH IMMERSION SUMMER CAMP AT PARK STREET ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

2 CATEGORIES OF CAMPS WILL BE OFFERED THIS SUMMER:

Les Débutants

This Daycamp is specifically designed for students entering French Immersion in Grades 1 and 2 in September 2019 or for children that need extra reinforcement and remedial support during the summer months. The kids will learn conversational French and beginning sounds to assist with reading. As well, the kids will learn to follow a written model and will learn to write simple pieces. Children will be introduced to all of the elements of a balanced literacy program to better prepare them for the entry point.

Les Curieux

This Daycamp is specifically designed for students entering Grades 3 or 4 in September 2019 that need extra reinforcement and remedial support during the summer months. The kids will learn conversational French and focus on complex sounds to assist with reading. As well, the kids will learn to extend their ideas beyond a teacher generated model and to extend their writing through student produced writing pieces. Children will continue to learn all of the elements of a balanced literacy program to better prepare them for their next school year.
