

WWALTM (What We Are Learning This Month) June 2021

Team 6

Ms. Adams	Math: We will be finishing up our unit on Statistics. PIF: We will be finishing up our unit on "Camp À ados". Health: We will be continuing to study the use, misuse and abuse of substances and media which may impact mental and physical well-being.
Mrs. Anderson	Language Arts: We will complete a final review of the various reading strategies learned throughout the school year, as well as work on some choice writing and quick writes. Social Studies: We will finish the last month with a culminating student project on culture and human rights. Personal Wellness: We will continue to study the use, misuse, and abuse of substances and media which may impact mental and physical well-being.
Mrs. Moore	Language Arts: Students will review the different reading strategies built upon throughout the year and complete self-directed choice genre pieces of writing. Science: Through regular use of the Scientific Method, students will engage in scientific explorations and experiments where independent, dependent and controlled variables are identified. Personal Wellness: We will continue to study the use, misuse, and abuse of substances and media which may impact mental and physical well-being.
Mrs. Aitken	Language Arts: We will continue to explore social justice issues through reading, writing, and conversation while digging deeper into critical thinking by examining bias and microaggressions. Math: We will finish up our unit on understanding the relationships within tables of values to solve problems and move on to representing and describing patterns and relationships using graphs and tables.
Mlle Connors	FILA: This month, students will be working on a Reader's Theatre production. They will use this opportunity to practice learned reading strategies and present their productions orally. We will also be working on written responses. PIF: Students will be completing the Unit 'Camp à ados' with a focus on summer activities and vocabulary.
M. Hogan	Math: We will be finishing unit on probability and statistics. Science: We will be conducting social experiments.
Mme. Carlisle	SH: This month, we will explore the effects of the economy on culture and finish the year with expressions of culture around the world. Personal Wellness: We will explain the use and misuse of substances which claim to assist weight loss or body building and define and discuss what is meant by addictive behavior.
Mr. Tower	Physical Education: We will continue to play co-operative games inside the gym and outside at the turf field.
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts: Students will be exploring shape and form while experimenting with clay. We will also be taking learning outside and exploring art in the world around us.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology: Students will be introduced to coding through the Hour of code website. Students will also be creating comic strips using the Comic Life software and completing any unfinished MSOffice projects.
Mrs. Sark	In Wolastoqey, we will be looking at poetry written by First Nation authors. We will be learning short conversations as well as words associated with outside games in Wolastoqey language. We will continue with our oral storytelling unit. Students will learn about local traditional medicines.

Team 7

Mr. MacNeil	Science: Students will be learning about what makes structures fail and how to design structures, so they don't fail. PDCP: Students will be working on personal development and career planning modules using the Everfi website.
Ms. Turley	Math: We are finishing our Coordinate Grid assignments then moving onto Exit Projects. Personal Wellness: We are completing our unit on the use and misuse of substances.
Mrs. Carlisle	PIF: The students are working on everyday words and phrases they will be able to use in their community, such as, going to a restaurant, the movies, sporting events, etc. They will also be doing oral presentations, reading and writing about these topics. Personal Wellness: Identify and describe the negative effects of alcohol and drugs.
M. Bragg	Math: We will work on coordinate graphing and probability. FI Science: Students will work on the heat and particle theory.
Mrs. Aitken	Language Arts: We will continue to explore social justice issues through reading, writing, and conversation while digging deeper into critical thinking by examining bias and microaggressions.
Mlle Connors	FILA: Students will continue with persuasive writing and work on presenting their ideas in a debate. Students will work on answering literal, inferential and critical questions about their reading. Students are reminded to keep reading nightly en francais. SH: Students will continue to examine the political structure of Canada as a result of Confederation. They will also be looking at how our government has changed over the years.
M. Hogan	Math: We will be completing a unit on probability and statistics.
Mr. Powell	SS: Students are working towards understanding how our government has changed and adapted through the years, from the 1830s to modern times. As well, we will complete the year investigating confederation; from inception to present.
Mrs. Thomson	LA: Students will complete their read aloud "Ghost Boys" while using the text for social comprehension lessons. A "post-test" of each student as a learner will be administered as we reflect on their progress since September and share their current identity as a person and as a learner.
Mr. Brewer/ Mr. Tower	Physical Education: We will continue to play co-operative games inside the gym and outside at the turf field. Personal Wellness: We will be learning about the importance our mental and physical wellness are. Also, we will be talking about nutrition and looking at the Canadian Food Guide
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts: Students will be exploring shape and form while experimenting with clay. We will also be taking learning outside and exploring art in the world around us.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology: Students will be improving their coding skills using the Scratch coding platform. Students will also be introduced to the woodshop and complete a small project using a power tool. Any incomplete MSOffice assignments will be wrapped up before the end of the year.
Mr. McCauley	Language Arts: Students will be placing our final touches on our poetry scrapbooks and completing their personal memoir piece. We will continue to explore social justice issues through reading, writing and discussion. Social Studies: We will be continuing our understanding of Confederation from inception to the present. Personal Wellness: We will explain the use and misuse of substances which claim to assist weight loss or body building and define and discuss what is meant by addictive behavior.
Mrs. Sark	In Wolastoqey, we will complete our unit about First Nations in Canada. we will continue learning short conversations as well as words associated with outside games in Wolastoqey language. We will continue with our oral storytelling unit. Students will learn about local traditional medicines.

Team 8

Mr. Drillen	Math: We will finish off the year with some work involving Ratio and Rate, Graphing and Probability, and Percent. Science: We will complete our unit on Water. Health: We will complete our unit on Safety and Use and Abuse of Substances.
Mrs. Muise	LA: We will be reading and writing independently and focusing on the strategies we have been working on all year to complete various activities. SS: We will be finishing the technology unit and exploring the multiculturalism of Atlantic Canada.
M. Bragg	PIF: Students will complete the unit "Un album de souvenir" by sharing important moments and people in their lives. FI Social Studies: We will finish our unit on culture and technology Personal Wellness: We will continue to discuss strategies to manage stress and improve emotional wellness
Mr. MacNeil	PDCP: Students will be working on personal development and career planning modules using the Everfi website.
Mlle Connors	FILA: Students will continue with persuasive writing and work on presenting their ideas in a debate. Students will work on answering literal, inferential and critical questions about their reading. Students are reminded to keep reading nightly en francais.
M. Hogan	Math: We will be completing a unit on probability and statistics. Science: We will be conducting social experiments.
Mrs. Cooper	Social Studies: We will be completing online projects about Atlantic Canadian Provinces. Science: We will be finishing our unit on Fluids with a hydraulics project.
Mrs. Aitken	Language Arts: We will continue to explore social justice issues through reading, writing, and conversation while digging deeper into critical thinking by examining bias and microaggressions.
Mr. Brewer	Physical Education: We will continue to play co-operative games inside the gym and outside at the turf field.
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts: Students will be exploring shape and form while experimenting with clay. We will also be taking learning outside and exploring art in the world around us.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology: Students will be learning how to code in JavaScript using the CodeCombat platform. Students will also be introduced to the Google Sketch-Up 3D design tool and finish up any incomplete MSOffice assignments.
Mrs. Sark	In Wolastoqey, we will complete our unit about First Nations in Canada. We will continue learning short conversations as well as words associated with outside games in Wolastoqey language. We will continue our oral storytelling unit. Students will learn about local traditional medicines.

