

WWALTM (What We Are Learning This Month) May 2022

Team 6

Ms. Adams	Math: Students are working on Statistics, in particular types of data and how to represent it. PIF: Students will be finishing up the Environment Unit and starting up the “Camp a ados” unit. Health: Students will explore the use, misuse and abuse of substances and media which may impact mental and physical well-being.
Mrs. Anderson	Social Studies: We continue to explore the rights and responsibilities as Canadian and global citizens. We will examine examples of human rights issues around the world, including issues involving rights outlined in the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights; and issues involving rights outlined in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. LA: We will continue listening, speaking, reading, and writing about poetry. We will continue learning about the different poetry forms and techniques by examining various mentor texts. Students are reminded to read nightly for at least 20 minutes. Personal Wellness: Students will explore the use, misuse and abuse of substances and media which may impact mental and physical well-being.
Mrs. Moore	LA: Students will begin a poetry unit where they will explore reading, writing, and listening to various types of poems. Practice using common writing conventions will be a focus. Regular review and practice of reading strategies will continue. Science: Students will continue to explore factors that affect plant growth, seed types and germination as well as root structure. Personal Wellness: Students will explore the use, misuse and abuse of substances and media which may impact mental and physical well-being.
Mrs. Aitken	LA: Students will continue to learn about reconciliation, elements of writing, and practice inferring skills. Math: Students will be learning about statistics and probability. Personal Wellness: Students will continue to learn mental health coping strategies.
Mme Comeau	FILA: Students will continue to work on centres to practice French skills. Students will work independently, in groups, and in conferences with the teacher to build reading comprehension, oral skills, and writing stamina. Students are encouraged to read nightly at home en français. Science: Students will be finishing up the unit: l’espace. They will be learning about the scientific method and how to safely perform experiments. PIF: Students are finishing up their Unit: Les robots and will begin their next unit: L’environnement
M. Hogan	FI Math: Students will finish a unit on angles and begin a unit on perimeter and volume.
Mlle Jones	FI Social Studies: We will continue to explore the various physical regions around the world and their influence on culture, focusing on Canada and ways of life. We will focus on worldview and the influence of our lives and actions all while continuing to enhance our French vocabulary.
Ms. Turley	Personal Wellness: We will be having discussions on Internet safety.
Mr. Brewer	Physical Education: Students will be continuing with volleyball and cooperative games. The turf is now open, so we will use that for outdoor Phys Ed.
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts: Students will continue to explore the element of color and practice sketching skills. We will begin basic music theory as well as a ukulele unit.
Mr. Pomeroy	Technology: Students will finish up their coding projects. We will then be learning about latitude and longitude and the many features of Google Earth. Towards the end of the month, we will begin a unit on bridge building.
Mrs. Sark	Wolastoqey: We will finish the 13 Moons unit. We will continue with our oral storytelling unit and include sharing stories with Hubbard and Assiniboine schools through Teams. In Wolastoqey language, we will continue exploring the food unit. Traditional dance will continue with Darian Brown.

Team 7

Mrs. Carlisle	LA: Students will be working on a poetry unit, where they will explore and practice various forms of poems. We will work on various writing skills through mini-lessons and practice. We will continue to use our read aloud, “Scar Island”, to meet a variety of outcomes. Personal Wellness: Students will continue to work through promoting student wellness in school and begin the unit on the use, misuse and abuse of substances. PIF: The students will finish the unit on publicity with presentations on their in-class mini-projects and final project. They will continue to work on reading and writing strategies in French.
Ms. Turley	Math: We will be working on the area of triangles before moving onto measures of central tendency. Personal Wellness: We will be working on strategies to promote students’ own wellness.
Mr. MacNeil	Science: Students will continue to examine the unit on structures. They will be building various types of structures. PDCP: Students will investigate careers of their interest using My Blueprint.
Mlle Jones	FI Social Studies: Students will continue to explore the various power dynamics in the 19th century surrounding the foundation of Canada and explore the lives of different groups within that era. We will be focusing on the Red River Rebellion, Louis Riel and the Women’s rights movements We will be engaging in a project surrounding causes chosen by students to highlight the power of people within social movements.
Mrs. Aitken	LA: Students will continue to learn about reconciliation, elements of writing, and practicing inferring skills.
Mme Comeau	FILA: Students working on sequential writing (marche à suivre) and editing a written piece. Students will practise strategies for comprehension of written texts. Students are encouraged to read nightly en français.
M. Hogan	Math: Students will work on area of circles, triangles and parallelograms before moving on to 4-plane cartesian planes. Personal Wellness: Students will continue to work through promoting student wellness in school and begin the unit on the use, misuse and abuse of substances. FI Science: Students will continue with weekly STEM challenges.
Ms. Watson	Social Studies: Students will begin the unit Political Empowerment focusing on life in British North America and confederation.
Mrs. Thomson	Language Arts: Students will complete their poetry unit by sharing their favorite pieces. Students will improve their use of quotation marks and dialogue through mentor texts (readers’ theatre, for example) and intentional practice. We will continue to use our read aloud, “Scar Island”, to meet a variety of outcomes.
Mr. Brewer/ Mr. Tower	Physical Education: Students will be continuing with volleyball and cooperative games. The turf is now open, so we will use that for outdoor Phys Ed.
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts: Students will continue to explore the element of color and practice sketching skills. We will also begin basic music theory and a ukulele unit.
Mr. Pomeroy	Students will continue to work on coding projects. We will also begin a new MSWord brochure project.
Mrs. Sark	Wolastoqey: Students will be looking at First Nation artists in Canada and exploring different types of artworks. We will be incorporating beadwork, carvings, ash and birchbark work. Students will continue with their oral storytelling unit and will include sharing stories with Hubbard and Assiniboine schools through Teams. In Wolastoqey language we will continue exploring the food unit. Traditional dance will continue with Darian Brown.

Team 8

Mr. Drillen	Math: We will continue working on the unit involving 3D shapes, surface area and volume, and then we will be moving into graphing. Personal Wellness: We will continue with our unit on Safety and take part in some outcomes for the unit on Use and Abuse of substances.
Mrs. Muise	LA: Students focus on inferring strategies while reading a variety of texts. They will continue examining sentence structure and conventions in their writing choice. Personal Wellness: We will continue the unit on Use, Misuse, and Abuse of Substances, as well as continuing SEL activities.
Mlle Jones	FI Social Studies: Students will continue to explore Economy and the varying economic industries in the Atlantic Canada region. We will continue to explore the various sectors of the economy and create links between the Atlantic Canadian economy and the world. PIF: Students will be continuing our unit “Une revue pour ados, par ados” which focuses on the comparison between magazines and blogs that are tailored specifically for adolescents. We will continue to learn vocabulary surrounding expressing our opinions while working on reading, speaking/listening and writing strategies in French. Students will engage in a few mini projects with class participation to solidify understanding.
Mr. MacNeil	Science: Students will investigate forces that influence the motion and properties of fluid. PDCP: Students will continue to work on self-paced learning modules using the Everfi website.
Mme Comeau	FILA: Students working on sequential writing (marche à suivre) and editing a written piece. Students will practice strategies for comprehension of written texts. Students are encouraged to read nightly en français.
M. Hogan	Math: We will continue working on the unit involving 3D shapes, surface area and volume. Science: Students will continue weekly STEM challenges.
Mrs. Cooper	Science: Students will be learning about concepts relating to balanced forces and buoyancy. They will be competing in a class tin foil boat challenge.
Ms. Watson	Social Studies: We will be starting the next unit on Technology. Students will also be working on a Shark Tank project throughout the month.
Mrs. Aitken	LA: Students will continue to learn about reconciliation, elements of writing, and practice inferring skills.
Ms. Turley	Personal Wellness: We will be working on identifying strategies to promote our own wellness.
Mr. Tower	Social Studies: We will be starting the next unit on Technology. Students will also be working on a Shark Tank project throughout the month. Physical Education: Students will be continuing with volleyball and cooperative games. The turf is now open, so we will use that for outdoor Phys Ed.
Mrs. Hanscomb	Fine Arts: Students will continue to explore the element of color and practice sketching skills. We will also begin basic music theory and a ukulele unit.
Mr. Pomeroy	Students will continue to design and build their CO2 cars. They will continue working on the SweetHome3D house design project and a coding project.
Mrs. Sark	Wolastoqey: Students will continue looking at First Nation artists in Canada and explore types of artwork. We will incorporate beadwork, carvings, ash and birchbark work. Students will continue with their oral storytelling unit and will include share stories with Hubbard and Assiniboine schools through Teams. In Wolastoqey language, we will continue exploring the food unit. Traditional dance will continue with Darian Brown.

