

Our Epic Class Code is ebs5537

Did you know that the Acadian Forest in which we live is one of six endangered forests in Canada? Prior to school closure, we had started to write a book from the perspective of the animals who have lost habitat.

Challenge: Make a list or draw all the mammals that you have seen in New Brunswick's forests. What other mammals live in N.B.?

For more information on why our forests are endangered, visit:

<https://www.worldwildlife.org/ecoregions/na0410>
<https://www.conservationcouncil.ca/en/our-programs/forest-conservation/>

Watch the YouTube video clip Wizards of Words - Blazer Fresh | GoNoodle

Continued learning is in your mailbox on EPIC!
 (Our class code ebs5537)

Place a plastic bowl on the floor and stand 20 steps away. Toss a coin in the bowl and record how many times it lands inside it. Express this as a fraction. Repeat.

Don't forget about your daily 20 minutes of Sumdog to improve your multiplication facts and be ready for Grade 6!

Wonderopolis.org has a wealth of information with over 240 000 questions and answers.

Click on the photo above to read the answer to "Can you drink water from a stream?" Check out some other wonders while you are there!

Book Clubs started May 27. This week, after finishing 2/3 of your book, you can talk about it with your group members on Flip Grid.com!

Use the "Flip code" below:

- A Boy Called Bat: bat5
- Song for a Whale: songforawhale5
- House Arrest: arrest5
- Shouting at the Rain: shouting5
- The Wild Robot: wildrobot5

With whatever books you are reading this week, think about your answers to these questions:

- What do you like best about the book so far?
- Did anything surprise you, or challenge your thinking?

Somebody married on this date in 1983 will be celebrating which anniversary today?

Quick Writes!
 Look at or listen to the prompt.
 Think for one minute.
 Write for 9 minutes.

- If you were principal for the week, what would you do?
- What is the best joke you've ever heard?
- Make a list of things that make you smile.
- Write out the lyrics to your favourite song.

rEmEmbEr propEr Punctu.ation and CAPITAL IEtTers (Remember proper punctuation and capital letters. 🤪)

You can find ideas from previous weeks here:
<https://mmeamandawardparish.weebly.com>

READING MENU

After reading, choose 1 question and circle it. Questions 1-6 are best for fiction stories and questions 7-9 are best for non-fiction books. Record your answer to the question in complete sentences.

1. Write a new ending for the story.	2. Was the author's purpose to persuade, inform or entertain? How do you know?	3. Write a letter to the main character and give him or her some advice about solving the problem.
4. Compare and contrast yourself to one of the characters from your text.	5. Retell the three events that you think are the most important events in the story.	6. What is the theme, or central message, of the story? How do you know?
7. What is the main idea of the chapter that you just read? How do the details help to support the main idea?	8. Which fact did you find the most interesting? Explain why.	9. Write a timeline to show the order in which an event happened in your text.

SELF CHECK

- I answered the entire question that I chose.
- I wrote in complete sentences.
- I used evidence and examples from the text to support my answer.
- I edited my work to make sure that it makes sense.

Candy is 4 bags for $1.84 at the store. Is this a better price than $.45 each? How do you know? Use mental math.

$1.84 for 4

45¢ each