Indigenous Studies 120 Continuation of Learning May 25th to May 29th

Hi/Qey!

This week I would like to provide you with some introductory information on what a Pow Wow is.

I will also include a short video clip on two of the Traditional Pow Wow dances.

What is a Pow Wow?

Pow Wow's are ceremonial celebrations of cultural pride for all ages and provide an opportunity for Indigenous communities to gather, celebrate, commemorate and learn from each other. These dynamic events showcase the music, dance, regalia, food and crafts of Indigenous peoples and nations from across Canada.

Locally the first Pow Wow of the season is held at UNB Fredericton's Currie Center. Most Pow Wows take place outside however the one at the Currie Center is inside. Unfortunately, due to the Pandemic, the Pow Wow was not held this year. Throughout the summer months several First Nations communities host Pow Wow's in New Brunswick and across Canada.

What is Regalia?

Often people refer to the Traditional outfits worn by participants at a Pow Wow as "costumes". This term is incorrect.

The appropriate term to use is "Regalia".

The link below provides some further information.

	The link below is a wonderful video that provides information about two types of dances and the Regalia worn for each. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uVuglK23j3A
Phys. Ed.	It is recommended that you complete 30 minutes of physical activity a day. With the nice weather finally here, make sure you get outside sometime this week. There are many activities you can do to keep active. Hiking, canoeing, kayaking, walking on the beach, walking and jogging. You can play most of the classic games also such as basketball, volleyball, badminton, tennis, soccer and football. Remember Sun Safety! Wear sunscreen and a hat. Keep hydrated. It wouldn't hurt to wear some bug spray, and remember to maintain your social distancing while enjoying the great outdoors.
Technology	Culinary Technology – find and make a refreshing summer salad. Here is a link to some ideas. If you are adventurous, try one that is out of your comfort zone. foodnetwork.ca/canada-day/photos/summer-salads-cottage-cabin-party/#!tomato-feta-pasta-salad-e1561484881805 Skilled Trades: Estimating Building Materials I am repairing a fence in my yard. I have three panels and four posts that need to be replaced. Each panel has 3 cross member 2x4x8s and 18 fence boards. Make a list of materials that I would need to purchase. If each panel is 8' long, how many would you need If you were to make the same style fence in your yard? Calculate using step method for perimeter. Make a material list for your fence.
