Books for Bikes

The local chapter of the Masonic Lodge held a contest in our grade 3 class this year to encourage reading. Students received a ballot for every book read. Last week, two of the students were chosen in a random draw to receive a new bicycle and helmet. The lucky winners were Kiera Alexander and Tyler Tapp. Congratulations!!!! Next year the contest may include Grades 1 – 3.

How Orangutans got their Pink Butts

I dedicate this book to my mom because I would not have been able to write this if she did not give me life. Thank you so much mom. ☺

Long, long, long ago there lived the Ricky orangutans, and the butt burners but the butt burners were very mean. They lived in a big mansion but the Ricky orangutans lived in the jungle all alone.

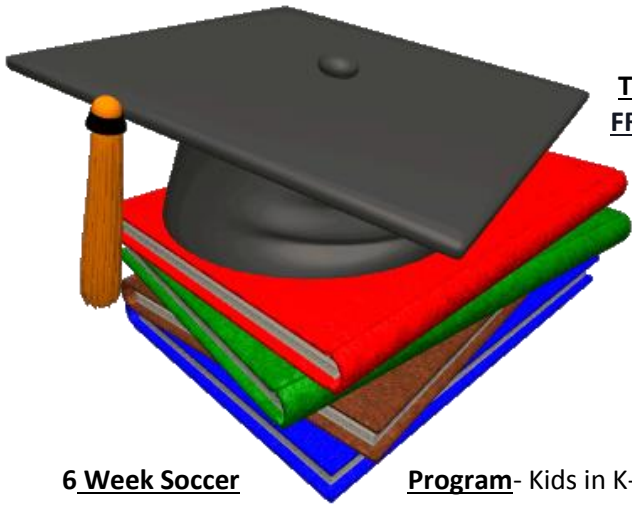

One day the butt burners asked if the Ricky orangutans wanted to stay the night. Of course they said yes. That night the Ricky orangutans were surprised how nice they were being. But they were not nice for long. When the Ricky orangutans fell asleep the butt burners lit a match and put it on their butts. They jumped out of the window and in to the lake to cool their butts down.

The butt burners laughed and laughed then the butt burners left and were never seen again. The Ricky orangutan's butts have been pink ever since.

And that's how orangutans got their pink butts.
