

Scholarship Information 2012-2013

Updated: April 25, 2013

Students should check the school website and edline regularly for information on scholarships and other graduation details as information is updated weekly.

To apply for a scholarship:

- 1) Go to the given website and read the instructions
- 2) Transcripts of marks can be obtained from Mrs. Taylor in the Guidance Center if the application requires one.
- 3) Many applications will require a letter of reference (or 2) from a teacher(s). Teachers should be given written information (Activity Resume) from you telling them your involvement inside and outside of the school at the time the reference letter is requested as this will enable them to write a detailed letter. Sample activity resume:

- 4) Students can print the application off the website or obtain an application in the Scholarship filing cabinet in the Guidance Center

Most Scholarships will be available during the second semester.

Check regularly as scholarships will be added weekly!

*Students should go to the website of their chosen institution and search scholarships for entrance awards specific to that institution.

* Students should also inquire on whether their parents or their own workplace offers scholarships.
