

Attention Graduating Students Seeking Direct to Work Opportunities

We're Here to Help You!

Did you know?

The Work Room Career Resource Centres provide services to all members of the community. We are still here to help even though you are learning at home. Whether you will be looking for work, attending a training program, or considering other options, The Work Rooms are a great resource!

How can we help?

- Professional resume and cover letter writing
- Interview skills, coaching and mock interviews
- Assistance with online applications and job banks
- Online tools such as JobMatchNB and myBlueprint
- Job search strategies and current labour market information
- Tips for effective communication with employers and networking
- Access to career-related resources and information

Contact Us

Like the rest of our community, we are operating a little differently these days. Please feel free to connect with us and we will be happy to assist.
